

Dear Nicco,

Hi Niccol I've missed you a lot. What kind of people have you met? Have you gotten your wings yet? Have you met any famous people? Do you play any games? Do you get an education? I know I shouldn't ask to many questions, but I'm so curious to find out what heaven is like.

I am in the fifth grade now, and my grades are awesome. How are your grades in Angel School? Angel School seems way more fun than my boring old school. I am going to write my letter to Santa later today. Have you written your letter to Santa? Something fun you can do is fly over Mt. Diablo which is right next to School. Mt. Diablo is covered in snow, so it is a really cool sight. If you don't know how to get there the go to mapquest.com and it will tell you how to get there.

It has been really cold all this week. I'll write back soon.

Your friend,
Joey
